

SEXUAL HARASSMENT ADVOCACY

RESTRICTED REPORT

- A Service member can confidentially report sexual harassment to a SARC or SAPR VA and receive victim advocacy services from the SAPR office.
- 24hr Notification to Installation Commander
- Notification through email is NOT authorized
- Does not trigger an investigation or notification to the Service member's command or installation EO office, unless there is written consent from the Service member or if there is a clear and present risk to health and safety to the Service member or another person, as determined in consultation with the servicing legal office.

WHO MAY MAKE A RESTRICTED REPORT

- Active-Duty Airmen, Guardians, and Reserve Service Members
- Air National Guard members are eligible when in a federalized status
- Service members who have not filed a Military Equal Opportunity (MEO) complaint with the installation EO office, retain the option to file a Restricted Report for sexual harassment with the SAPR Office
- Pre-existing MEO sexual harassment complainants are eligible to elect an Unrestricted Report of sexual harassment and can request victim advocacy services with the SAPR office
- DAF Civilians, Service member dependents, and retirees may be eligible to use EO complaint process for allegations of sexual harassment but are NOT eligible for Restricted or Unrestricted Reporting or advocacy services through the SAPR office.

EXCEPTIONS TO RESTRICTED REPORT

- Authorized by the victim in writing
- Necessary to prevent or mitigate a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of the victim or another person
- Required for fitness for duty or disability determinations.
- Required for the supervision of coordination of direct victim healthcare or services.
- Ordered by a military official (e.g., a duly authorized subpoena in a UCMJ case), Federal or State judge, or as required by a Federal or State statute or applicable U.S. international agreement.
